

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES J. WESLEY & ROBERTA ROBBINS SCHOLARSHIP

The IUSB College of Liberal Arts and Sciences is pleased to request applications for the J. Wesley & Roberta Robbins Scholarship. J. Wesley Robbins joined the IU South Bend faculty in 1967 and was co-founder of the Philosophy Department, in which he served for 36 years. Roberta Robbins is an alumna of the IU South Bend School of Business and Economics. She served for a number of years on the Alumni Board. The scholarships are awarded for merit and may be applied toward tuition during the coming academic year. Current IUSB students are encouraged to apply for the award by March 10.

CRITERIA

- Enrollment as an undergraduate student at IUSB.
- Completion of 48 or more semester hours by the end of the spring academic semester.
- Strong academic record, at least a 3.0 overall grade point average.
- Preference will be given to those who exhibit an interest in the interaction of science and religion, by their coursework and stated research interests.

AMOUNT

The scholarship will be for $500.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Candidates must complete the online application by March 10th. In addition, they should arrange for submission of at least one letter of reference from a faculty member in the student's major field and write a brief personal statement explaining the special qualifications for which you merit this award. Preference will be given to those who exhibit an interest in the interaction of science and religion, by their coursework and stated research interests. Involvement in student research, presentations, publications, student clubs, or professional activities would be welcome details. These additional application materials should be submitted to the Office of the Associate Dean, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences in Wiekamp DW3300 by March 10th.